'Huge leap' in fight to save day centre

PROFESSIONAL day care services for older people could soon be returning to Honiton, after community leaders celebrated a "huge leap forward" in their bid to save the St Michael's day centre.

Dedicated volunteers fighting to secure the building's future have now struck a deal with county council chiefs to provide day care services at the building for three-and-a-half days a week.

They will now seek to establish a community interest company to help them raise enough money to get the project off the ground later this year.

A small group of volunteers came together soon after Devon County Council announced it would no longer be able to cover the cost of day services for older people at St Michael's.

Under a new name – provisionally the 'Honiton 55+ Centre' – the group hopes to recruit two paid members of staff to work alongside an army of volunteers in restoring regular day care services at the building.

The group plans to provide clients with the option of full or half-day visits, with a regular lunch club and coffee mornings also in the pipeline.

Around £6,000 has already been contributed to help kick-start the project, and those leading the scheme say they are confident of raising the money required.

Jackie Wadsworth, whose elderly mother is a former user of the St Michael's day centre, began the project last year and is now being supported by a team of volunteers.

"The idea was first raised at Christmas, when my mother was upset about having to say goodbye to the many friends she had made at St Michael's," she said.

"The first six months is going to be very hard graft for whoever is involved, but we will start slowly and gradually build things up."

John Zarczynski, who was appointed the group's chairman at a meeting last week, said: "We have had promises of substantial donations and will be able to apply for grants from a long list of sources. So we feel we will have enough money to make the commitment as far as staffing is concerned.

by Jack Dixon
jack@pemedial.co.uk

"But the important thing is that we have had the offer from the council – we have made a huge leap forward by securing the three-and-a-half days.

"There will be many more hurdles to clear but we have jumped the first one."

As well as providing a service for former clients of St Michael's, Mr Zarczynski said the group wants to extend the building to anyone over the age of 55.

They also want to expand the scope of the service over time, with a long-term vision to provide a benefits clinic and treatment room at the centre.

Mr Zarczynski added: "It sounds like a great deal for us to organise, but it's something we will be working on and expanding as we go along.

"If we do not lay the foundations now we cannot expect these things to happen in the future."

Devon County Council announced last year that it would be withdrawing its funding for day centres, as part of a programme of cost-cutting measures.

Alternative day care provision has since been arranged for many of the centre's former users.

But Mr Zarczynski said there are "many people who have been reallocated against their wishes and scattered across the area".

"Some of them will miss their friends and their surroundings. We will give them the chance to come back," he said.

Neil Hurlock, from the TRIP Community Transport Association, has also stepped in to manage the finances.

Mr Hurlock said a substantial donation had already been made towards the project, with some of the money to be used to set up the company and produce a business plan.

And the group is already looking ahead to August, by which time they hope to have the service up and running.

Anyone interested in supporting the project should contact Jackie Wadsworth on jacbar007@btinternet.com or 01404 43935.

Council meet residents over parking issues

CAMPAIGNERS behind an 80-strong petition against new parking restrictions won a partial victory when Devon County Council (DCC) agreed to meet them and put their concern on the agenda.

There is no guarantee that the double yellow lines they oppose will be removed but DCC has agreed to meet the residents of Seaton Down Road who object to the yellow lines down a section of the road between Ryall's Court and Cherry Drive.

They claimed to have been "appalled" at the beginning of October to find that parking restrictions had been put in place without warning. DCC denies to have acted without warning, but has agreed to review the matter.

From the editor's chair Rising to the challenge

I'VE spent most of my adult life involved in sport in one way or another.

As a young man I played football and cricket, finishing the former when I was 35 and the latter when I was 55.

I went on to manage a sports publishing company in London where I met many of my sporting idols. Some were decent chaps; others, well put it this way, you wouldn't want your daughter to marry them.

When I returned from London I spent 10 years as chairman of my home-town football club and I am now proud to be a life-member and President.

I've made many friends through sport and enjoyed some fantastic occasions at sporting arenas around the world.

But my greatest regret is that I failed to deliver new sporting facilities in Lyme where the ill-fated Strawberry Field project to find a new home for Lyme Regis FC failed miserably, never to be resurrected.

So I've taken a great interest in Axminster Town's move to brilliant new facilities in Chard Road, a project that has not been without its problems but at long last seems to be reaching fruition. I wish them well.

I was also interested to hear this week that Ilminster Town FC have fears that their Gooch Pavilion project, with the finance secured, could be jeopardised by alleged misinformation sweeping the town about the club's ability to manage such a facility.

I've always considered Ilminster FC to be one of the best run sporting clubs in the area and have no doubt they are more than capable of rising to the challenge.

CREWKERNE

Schools create outdoor areas with £40,000 grant

PUPILS at two primary schools in the Crewkerne area are reaping the benefits of grants totalling almost £40,000.

The Crewkerne and Misterton Federation consists of Ashlands Church of England First School and Misterton Church of England First School.

Both schools have been able to transform outdoor areas thanks to grants from Sport England's Primary Spaces Fund.

School business manager Lisa Carter explained: "The Crewkerne and Misterton Federation is thrilled to have been awarded £17,400 for Ashlands Church of England First School and £18,500 to Misterton Church of England First School.

Lisa added: "The investments have been used to further transform the schools' outdoor spaces, creating vibrant multi-activity games areas including traverse climbing walls that can be used both within the curriculum and outside school hours by local communities."

Carol Wills, who is the headteacher of both schools, said: "The grants have made a huge difference to both schools."

COLYTON & COLYFORD

Council agrees to take on the town library

COLYTON Parish Council has agreed in principle to take on ownership of the town's library after it was chosen as one of 12 across the county to pilot a community-led scheme.

Following public consultation after it was announced that Devon County Council had to cut its library budget £1.5million over the next four years, Colyton was named as one of 12 libraries across the county to pilot a scheme which would see the local community taking greater responsibility in running the facility.

Devon County Council is working with community groups in the 12 towns to help shape the new organisation and try new ways of involving local people so they can have more say on how their library is run. In Colyton, the council has been working with the Friends of Colyton Library.

Having attended a meeting with the Friends, parish councillor Sheila Smith reported back to the council last week, asking if they would consider taking ownership of the building.

Jane Dauncey of the Friends of Colyton Library said: "We are very pleased the parish council has agreed in principal to take on the building and we look forward to working with them closely in the future."

"This is a major step towards achieving our goal of a secure community library for Colyton."

Twinning association's search for new members

by Anders Larsson
anders@tindlenews.co.uk

HONITON Twinning Association (HTA) is keen to attract new members, particularly couples.

HTA members have hosted visiting twinning groups from both Gronau, near Hanover, and Mezdion-Canon, near Caen, many times over the last 40 years.

Criers on call

TOWN criers from across Devon and Somerset are preparing to compete for the top prize in a crying contest at Honiton's Sausage and Cider Festival next month.

A total of seven criers have been confirmed for the event, which takes place during the festival's second day on Saturday May 2nd.

Invited guests from as far afield as Hatherleigh and Kingsbridge will compete alongside criers from Seaton and Exmouth, as well as Chard, Ilminster and Yeovil, for the Sausage and Cider Cup. The contest starts at 12noon in the festival's main arena.

A373 car fire

FIREFIGHTERS dealt with a vehicle fire on the A373 at Awliscombe, near Honiton, on Friday, April 10th.

They were called just after 5:15pm, and a spokesperson for the fire and rescue service said: "Crews used two breathing apparatus and one hose reel jet to put out the fire. The vehicle was believed to be abandoned, and the police were notified of the incident."

They have also travelled on reciprocal visits and Honiton Town Band has accompanied twinners more than once.

HTA secretary Michael Hind said: "The original vision and aim of getting to know neighbouring countries a little better, and fostering warm feelings between them, remain true.

"The membership is now smaller, and the association would like to meet younger people, especially couples, who might like to share with us what are always rewarding visits to Normandy and the Hanover region, and be prepared to host visitors for a day or two in return.

"In recent years we have arranged programmes for our French and German guests, which have ranged widely over local attractions, and also enjoyed numerous welcome dinner occasions with them.

"We also have a year-round social programme which has included local walks, an annual dinner, and other events in the town."

"Our Annual General Meeting is in the Hayward Room, The Beehive, at 7:30pm on Thursday, April 23rd. All are welcome, especially those interested in joining us for some of our activities."

Anyone interested in joining but unable to attend the AGM is welcome to call communications secretary Roger Sleeman on 01404 43310 for more information.

PERFECT PITCH | Youngsters in Honiton are being given the chance to start school on the right note, thanks to a new music initiative.

Leah Stonex (pictured), a primary school teacher and skilled pianist, hopes to give children from the age of one a good grounding in music skills, to help them make the most of lessons when they start school.

The 'music seeds' classes, starting at the Honiton Family Church later this month, have already proved a big hit in Axminster, where they have been running for the last two years.

"The classes involve singing, games, movement and percussion, and will prepare children for learning an instrument, as well as reinforcing other music lessons," said Leah.

For more information, visit www.musicseeds.co.uk or call 01404 849264.

Makeover brings hospice garden to life

A TEAM of hard-working volunteers has transformed a rubble-strewn piece of land into a fantastic new garden area, providing an outdoor retreat for patients at Honiton's new day hospice.

Around a dozen dedicated helpers chipped in with shovels and spades to create the garden from scratch last weekend.

A 48-hour blitz saw the grey construction site converted into a sparkling green space, complete with trees, seating area and a fountain feature.

It took just two days for the team from Honiton Round Table, led by professional designer Kathryn Aalto, to complete the job, which will offer patients a calming environment to relax in.

The volunteers arrived at the Kings House Day Centre early on Saturday (April 11th) to begin work on the project.

And the team worked in shifts throughout the weekend to finish the job on Sunday afternoon.

"As soon as I heard about the hospice, I knew I wanted to get involved and support it," said Alistair Britchford, chairman of Honiton Round Table (pictured, front centre).

The local charity is the latest in a long line of organisations and individuals to show their support for the Hospiscare project, which has inspired an unprecedented response from the community over the last year.

by Jack Dixon
jack@pemediaco.uk

The completion of the garden adds the finishing touches to the £1.2 million development, which was boosted by a contribution of more than £275,000 from local fundraisers.

Following the successful appeal, staff finally opened the doors to the King Street centre — providing day hospice services for patients across East Devon — at the end of February.

Around a dozen patients are already making use of the facility, with more on the waiting list for referral.

The new centre has been specially designed to ensure patients who are fighting long-term illness feel as comfortable as possible in their surroundings.

Hi-tech bathing and toilet facilities have been installed to support immobile visitors, five-star food is dished up during the day, and an open-plan lounge area gives patients the chance to relax in the company of friends and Hospiscare staff.

Activist sentenced after protest

A HONITON woman has been sentenced at a London magistrates' court, after she took part in a protest supporting fathers' rights.

Carol Wheeler, 41, climbed on top of the Hyde Park archway in central London last August, as part of a demonstration by the New Fathers 4 Justice and Humanworth campaign groups.

Along with six other activists, she mounted the landmark early on August 12th during an international protest against the "corrupt" family courts.

A statement released by the group at the time, said: "We are responsible protestors and our rules are simple – no damage and no abuse."

But all six were later detained by the Metropolitan Police on suspicion of aggravated trespass, causing a public nuisance and suspicion of criminal damage.

The defendants appeared at Westminster Magistrates' Court last Friday (April 10th), where Carol Wheeler received a conditional discharge of nine months for her role in the protest.

A band of other activists also arrived in the public gallery to support the defendants, and the New Fathers 4 Justice campaign admitted they had caused a "fracas" during the two-day trial.

A spokesperson for the group said: "No parent who is fit and willing should ever be denied their right to share equally in the lives of their own children."

"We want nothing less than a legal presumption of equal contact for a child with their parents if they split up, and the abolition of the deeply controversial, undemocratic secret court system that still exists within the 'family' division, despite 40 years of inequality and protest.

"We use direct action and protests to highlight the injustice fathers face in the present family court system."

■ HUMANWORTH campaigners supported the activists during their two-day trial at Westminster Magistrates' Court, where Honiton activist Carol Wheeler (pictured inset with election candidate Bobby 'Elmo' Smith, who is contesting David Cameron's Oxfordshire seat) was sentenced

■ FULLY FOCUSED | The performance was "spine-tingling"

HONITON Youth Orchestra's spring concert was described as "a spine-tingling performance" with music from War Horse.

The concert took place in St Paul's Church on Thursday, March 26th, and a spokesperson for the orchestra said: "We are grateful for the contributions made by students from Littleton Academy. For some this was their first performance outside of school.

"Honiton Community College A-level students also gave a number of performances that fulfill criteria for their exams."

"Also, thanks for the generous donations the public made, totaling over £55."

"Our next concert will be on July 2nd in St Paul's Church at 6pm."

The orchestra is to hold an open day workshop on Saturday April 25th from 10am-4pm in St Paul's Church, followed by a social with food event.

The cost is £10 and people can register their interest by e-mailing helen@roulson.co.uk

Museum tracks down copy of 17th century town survey

The 1682 survey of the Manor of Seaton could be described as an early form of a census as it lists every property, its layout, name and age of occupiers, and conditions of lease.

Museum curator Ted Gosling has been aware of the survey for some time, but has not managed to get hold of a copy before.

In Mr Gosling's The Book of Seaton, he wrote: "A survey of the Manor of Seaton was made by Robert Leigh at a Court Leet and Court Baron held on April 26th 1682.

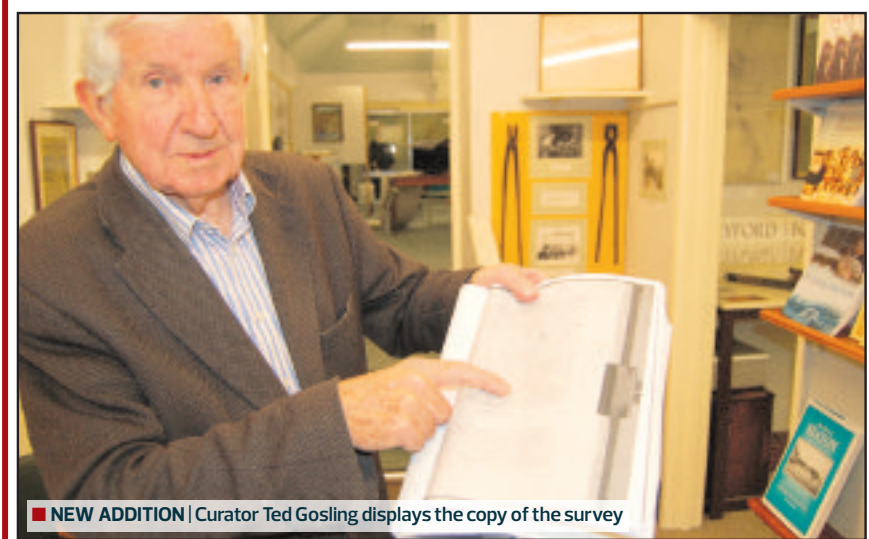

"Such courts were the origins of our democratic local government.

"The Court Leet was in theory a royal court with the Lord of the Manor as the delegate of the King. "Through the Court Baron, the manor administered the tenancies held by favour of the Lord."

The original is kept at Somerset Heritage Centre (formerly Somerset Record Office) from where the museum ordered a copy.

Mr Gosling told Pulman's View: "We have never had a copy before. It is probably the earliest and most important document of Seaton.

"It is all written in early English style, and it shows what Seaton was like then."

RBL members welcome around Britain veteran

TWO years ago ex soldier Mark Newton set off on an epic journey to travel the complete coastline of Britain, including the islands.

He completed his journey of 12,186 miles in 596 days.

What's special about Mark's travels is that he made the journey on a mobility scooter, all whilst towing a small trailer which he slept in with two cats to keep him company.

On the way Mark has been raising money for the Royal British Legion, RNLI and Help for Heroes.

by Ian Barradale

In March at a dinner organised by the Royal British Legion, Mark was honoured with an award for being their top individual fundraiser for 2014.

After completing his epic trip around the coast of Britain, Mark has decided to set himself the target of visiting every war grave and war memorial in the country.

He photographs each war grave and sends these off to the Imperial War Museum in London.

He still is travelling on his mobility scooter, pulling his trailer and with his two cats and continues to raise funds for his charities.

He has finished his survey of Wiltshire and has now started his travels in Devon which he expects to take him the next four months.

On Saturday he was in Seaton to be welcomed by the Seaton branch of the Royal British Legion.

His travels are taking him onto Axmouth, Honiton and to Exmouth before heading on to North Devon.

Mobile banking in Seaton

He said: "I know a number of residents were upset at the closure of the bank and the police station front office, but by working in partnership with NatWest we are now able to deliver additional services to the community.

"The team will be accessible to residents who may not have had an opportunity to speak with officers or bank staff and we look forward to meeting you."

The first session involving police took place on Monday, April 13th from 1:30pm-2:30pm.

PC Speariett, who was accompanied by Sgt Andy Squires and PCSO Mike McGauley, said: "It was extremely well attended with nearly 50 people using both the NatWest and police services."

ROUND UP

KILMINGTON

APOLOGIES were received and read before the speaker began his talk to Kilminster WI members met.

Mr Williams, formerly of the RAF and an ex-psychiatric nurse at Broadmoor, spoke of his adventures walking around Britain with his dog.

He is still in touch with his RAF friends and met some on the way. The press took an interest in his walk and reported various events.

His dog was a rescue collie and accompanied him on his journey. His pack weighed between 30 and 40lbs, and his aim was 10 miles a day, stopping at 4pm.

He had many adventures including sleeping behind a pillar at St Paul's and pitching in the dark on the golf course at Sandwich where he was woken by irate shouting!

He had a disaster at Bacton where he ignored local advice and walked on the beach with an incoming tide. He was lucky to be thrown on a ledge so survived! More adventures followed and he eventually came to Skegness where he slept under the pier. More adventures to follow. He was thanked by Joy.

We welcomed anew member Louise who has joined us. Regarding Axe Vale Festival, one suggestion was to depict the 1960s for the WI class.

The competition was won by Phyllis with Anne second; the flower of the month was by Phyllis with Joy second. The meeting closed at 9:15pm. The May meeting is the AGM starting at 7pm in the village hall.

MUSBURY & WHITFORD WI

THE April meeting was held on the 14th at Whitford Village Hall. Apologies were taken and birthday posies given.

We had received a thank you letter from the Hall Management Committee, thanking us for our donation to the defibrillator.

Thanks were given to Lesley and Mike for the walk on the Wetlands, destination 'our bench'. Unfortunately, by this time the Speaker was a no-show, so we just carried on.

Axe Vale Show competition theme will be 100 years of WI, with Lesley to co-ordinate.

Maureen is the delegate for the Spring Council in Torquay. Margaret Platts and Jan Bodsworth, will be attending the Royal Garden Party at Buck House. The Bursary will be available in May.

Joan Lovell gave some ideas for trips later in the year, which were discussed. Members are asked to design and make a banner, 10"x8", on 100 years of the WI for the group meeting at Seaton Town Hall in June.

Next month is the AGM, and WI advisor Mary Andrews will be attending on Tuesday, May 12th at Whitford Village Hall from 7:30pm.

Painting Modigliani in gouache at art society

HONITON ART SOCIETY

IF MEMBERS of Honiton Art Society were expecting a demonstration of traditional portrait painting in gouache at their April meeting, they were in for a surprise when artist Annette Burkitt produced a painting in the style of Modigliani!

Starting with a simple line drawing taken from a Modigliani portrait, Annette painted in the yellow base colour with quick drying acrylic using a household paint brush.

She then blocked in areas of bright colour in gouache, working from dark to light, having used candle grease to mask areas where the paint was not wanted.

Annette pointed out the simplicity of line and the exaggeration of shape and colour present in the picture.

As she continued to build up the layers of colour, Annette happily engaged in a lively discussion with her audience on different aspects of art and painting.

Annette mentioned seven important constituents of a good painting: rhythm, repetition, opposition, transition, symmetry, balance and sensitivity.

More depth of colour and texture were added to her painting using Inkense crayons, the darks were deepened by the use of a little gum arabic and the outlines further defined to finish the picture.

Annette was thanked for a very interesting afternoon of painting and discussion by chairman, Barrie Raby.

The next meeting of the Society will be the AGM on Monday, May 11th.

Former RBL chaplain speaks in Axminster

AXMINSTER RBL
Women's Section

THE Venerable Frank Johnson was guest speaker at the RBL Axminster Women's Section March meeting.

For a number of years Frank acted as Chaplain to the Royal British Legion, a charity which he both admires and supports.

Members heard about the various conflicts from the last century and the most recent one in Afghanistan, the latter commemorated at a special service in St Paul's Cathedral.

Throughout both World Wars and other conflicts, the courage and dedication of people who fought to combat evil and protect the freedom that this country enjoys was highlighted with many individual examples.

Last year we commemorated the 100th anniversary of the Great War and this year we will see the 70th anniversary of victory in Europe in May followed by VJ Day in August.

Former WAAF and president of the Women's Section, Audrey Lanchbery, was a young woman during World War II and branch member John Glanville-Smith fought in France as a young Captain, a reminder to fellow Legion members of their dedication and bravery at a time when this country fought for survival.

Tribute was paid to many humble and brave soldiers, one example being Irvin Roberts, imprisoned by the Japanese, whose Christian faith was matched by his great courage.

Caring for fellow soldiers battling dysentery and malaria as they laboured, working and caring for them as they succumbed to the disease, until he too also died.

The importance of remembrance, continuing to commemorate the sacrifice of those who fought for our liberty is essential in order to remind others of the debt owed by the courage and commitment of so many over the years.

PHOENIX LADIES CLUB (Axminster)

JOHN Scott recounted a fascinating history of Beer Caves over the centuries, informing members of Axminster's Phoenix Ladies Club that stone from the caves have been used to build such historic edifices as Westminster Abbey, the Tower of London, Windsor Castle, Hampton Court and St Paul's Cathedral. In addition, the caves have provided stone for 24 cathedrals built throughout the UK.

Quarried over the centuries, mainly by candlelight, the caves span 75 acres underground; this equates to 100 football pitches, which is an extraordinary feat of engineering. The work was undertaken by men, women and children who worked for little recompense in appalling conditions and with the stone being cut by hand.

Artefacts discovered over the centuries relate to Roman coins and a brooch from the bronze age; the Saxons and Normans also quarried stone and work continued until production ceased early last century.

Children aged eight were employed at a 1p a week to replace candles in the caves, despite the fact that children under 14 years were forbidden by law to be employed. Working in awful conditions, men were forced to pay for five tallow candles to illuminate the caves as they worked, often working for 16 hours a day.

If the stone they quarried cracked, then no payment was received and consequently many families went hungry. Bearing in mind that a four ton block had to be cut out, by hand, every day, the appalling conditions and abysmal pay not to mention the dangerous work makes us appreciate current working conditions, including today's health and safety rules and regulations.

Our thanks to Mr Scott for providing a in-depth insight to our forefathers whose monuments exist today as a testimony to their endeavours and in many cases, tragic deaths.

Following the raffle and tea break, members enjoyed a talk by fellow member, Marcia Wilmott who recounted her years as a Police Constable in the mid-1960s, illustrating her work through photographs and other memorabilia.

A fascinating account of life in the police force 50 years ago before women were allowed on the front line. Their contribution was invaluable at a time when life was much different to the times in which we now live.

Take a tour of the Med without leaving Town

THE Mediterranean diet has long been associated with good health. Now local weight-loss experts say a new cook book inspired by the Med will set you on the road to fabulous slimming.

Slimming World has published Mediterranean Magic, which is full of Mediterranean-style dishes that have been created in line with the organisation's famous Food Optimising healthy eating plan. Local Slimming World Consultants, Sharon, Dawn and Helen, who runs Slimming World groups in Honiton, Ottery St Mary, Axminster & Seaton says it will show people that it's possible to fill your plate with bold sunshine flavours and exciting colourful food while losing weight.

"Meal times in the Med are special times. They're about sitting down with the ones you love and enjoying the foods and flavours you love. For us, one of the best things about the warmer months is enjoying mouth-watering meals with family and friends, whether that's packing a picnic or coming together for a big barbecue feast. People might think that if they're losing weight those events have to be off the menu for them, yet that's absolutely not the case at Slimming World.

"Slimming World's plan isn't about going 'on a diet', it's about discovering a new way of eating that means you can still enjoy food and live your life. In fact, by making small changes to the way they prepare and cook meals, slimmers find there's very little they can't have while losing weight. The healthy versions of delicious dishes from holiday hotspots in this book show that perfectly and they're ideal for the upcoming summer months. Even if people aren't going away this summer, Mediterranean Magic will take them, and their tastebuds, on a tour of the Med and ensure that their weight-loss journey is a very tasty one."

Every recipe in Mediterranean Magic is based on Slimming World's Food Optimising plan, which allows slimmers to satisfy their appetite on every day foods like fruit and veg, meat, chicken, fish, pasta, rice and potatoes so there's no need to go hungry while losing weight. Herbs and spices can also be used freely on the plan, meaning it's easy for anyone who's losing weight to bring the big flavours of the Med into their kitchen without compromising their slimming campaign.

The collection suits all cooking abilities and each recipe is accompanied by a photo of the finished article to tempt the tastebuds and help inspire novice cooks.

Spray a paella pan or large non-stick frying pan with low calorie cooking spray and place over a medium-low heat.

Add the onion, garlic and chicken and stir-fry for 5 minutes or until softened.

Stir the saffron threads (if using) and turmeric into the stock, then add the stock to the pan and stir in the smoked paprika.

Bring to a simmer then add the paella rice. Stir once, then cover and leave to simmer gently for 15-20 minutes.

Scrub the mussels, pulling off any beards, and discard any that are damaged or are open but don't close when tapped against the sink.

Add the mussels, squid, prawns, peppers, peas and carrots to the paella. Cook for a further 10 minutes, stirring occasionally, until the rice is soft but not mushy, the vegetables are tender and the mussels have opened (discard any that remain closed). Season to taste, scatter over the parsley and serve in shallow bowls with lemon wedges to squeeze over.

Antique clock stolen from Honiton shop

POLICE are investigating the theft of an antique clock, which was stolen from a High Street shop in Honiton last weekend.

The 19th century French piece was taken from Lombard Antiques at around lunchtime on Saturday, April 11th.

Around 14 inches in height, the clock has a grey, marble face, base and panels, with a two-to-three inch cherub statue on top.

Officers are appealing for information about the incident and urge anyone who can assist with their enquiries to call the 101 non-emergency number, quoting crime reference number CR/024403/15.

Church fundraiser features two choirs

MUSBURY Church is putting on a concert to raise money for the maintenance of the church building on Saturday (April 25th) in the church at 7pm.

Parochial church council secretary Kay Short said: "We have a splendid line up of artists performing."

"Jane Ryan, a distinguished and a well known professional musician before coming to live in Musbury, is playing the Viola

Da Gamba. Her friend Kevin Avebury, another distinguished musician, is playing the lute with her and will entertain us on his own with his guitar.

"We also have Annette Freathy on her flute, Alburn Jervis on organ, Jilly Spencer and Nigel Freathy performing."

"There are two choirs included in the fantastic programme – Andy Hague and his Spirit Choir and we are particularly pleased that Musbury Primary School is going to start the evening off, singing some songs they have learnt recently.

"Tickets are £7 from Musbury Garage or by booking on 01297 552711 or 552440.

"You can also pay on the door. Wine and canapes are included in the price. This promises to be a really good evening and we look forward to the support of local people."

OBITUARY

LADY Alison Kremer (nee Balfour), the great niece of the first Lord Balfour (Prime Minister, 1902–1905) and resident of Wilmington for the last 36 years, died on Good Friday morning, April 3rd, aged 80.

She became a Widworthy Church warden soon after our move to Wilmington in 1979 from London, taking care of its glorious restoration and maintenance throughout her life here.

Tom Kremer, her husband for over 60 years, said: "More importantly, she nurtured the life of the village, contributing massively to the wellbeing and unity of our community."

"What was so special about her was her profound interest in all of us as individuals."

"None of us can forget her vivid, smiling, face and generosity of spirit."

"We shall always remember her."

They had three children – David, Amanda and Kim.

Parking restrictions have made road safer for users

■ IN reply to the article "Petition over parking restrictions" (Pulman's View From Seaton, April 7th), I would like to make the following comments and observations.

As a resident of Seaton Down Road I must state that the road now flows, in part, freely in both directions without the obstruction of parked vehicles making it both safer for residents and users. Since the introduction of a large supermarket in the town and housing development, traffic, especially heavy goods vehicles, has increased and, as one of the major arterial roads into the town, it is essential they are made as safe as possible, this being the responsibility of the Devon County Council highways department.

The restricted parking near to Ryalls Court has achieved this with the loss of probably six on-road parking spaces at one of the narrowest points in Seaton Down Road. The new permit parking in York and Highwell Road will, of course, displace parking to the surrounding areas but it must be remembered that most of the houses in the area were built when ownership of a motor car was low; they now have residents owning at least one vehicle with no off-road parking, hence there will always be a premium on parking in the area.

It may be worth asking EDDC why they allowed a change of use of a terraced house in Highwell Road to business use; the business running a fleet of cars for their employees, which are parked in surrounding roads.

The issue of speed along Seaton Down Road will always be an issue, as in every UK town and village. This has not altered due to the parking restrictions. In my experience most speeding vehicles are local residents, so perhaps the people of Seaton should drive a little slower.

On the question of house prices, this is just scare-mongering. There would be no evidence to suggest this other than to say a house with off-road parking would probably be more attractive.

In conclusion, the highways have an obligation to make roads as safe and as unobstructed as possible. Main roads littered with parked cars does not fulfill that aim, they should not compromise that aim by providing on-road parking.

GEOFF STRINGER,
Seaton Down Road, Seaton

Using drives as turning points is damaging private property

■ REGARDING parking restrictions in Seaton (front page of Pulman's View From Seaton, April 7th), why do these people park their cars in Ryalls Court and use people's drives as turning points?

The banks on the side of our drive is ruined where people turn their cars.

Name and address supplied

Send your letters to Pulman's View From Newspapers, Unit 3 St Michael's Business Centre, Church Street, Lyme Regis Dorset DT7 3DB or email francesca@pmedia.co.uk
The views expressed in letters are those of the author and not necessarily of this newspaper

What do election posters mean?

■ THE sudden appearance in our fields and hedgerows, gardens and window boxes, of a variety of colourful election posters must gladden every heart in East Devon this springtime.

It is probably wise simply to enjoy them as a symbol of hope and renewal. But sometimes I wonder if they have some deeper meaning.

Perhaps the posters in windows and gardens indicate that the people who live there intend to vote for the named candidate (or party). But what are we to make of the ones on gates and fields inhabited only by sheep and donkeys?

And the ones planted on the margins of our public roads? What are they for? It's not as if Devon East is a marginal constituency. Or is it?

ROBERT CRICK,
Sidmouth

Little enthusiasm at district for dealing with Seaton affairs

■ I READ with great interest the letter in the April 7th edition of Pulman's View from former council member for Seaton, Steve Williams.

His comments about East Devon District Council's attitude confirm that which most people in Seaton suspect. There doesn't seem to be much enthusiasm in dealing with Seaton affairs, and comments from our locally-elected town council seem to pass straight over their heads.

The fiasco regarding the Chine Cafe on Seaton seafront is a recent example. The previous contract with the old tenant at the cafe was resolved in May 2014, yet it took another 10 months to sort out and offer a new contract to applicants! Now, I'll be the first to admit that I have limited knowledge on procedures and protocols at EDDC, but, come on, don't people actually talk to each other there?

We have ward councillors who represent Seaton at EDDC who will be up for re-election this year, one who is our town champion. What action have they been taking to push through this matter and many others affecting Seaton? Have they been actively lobbying committees and talking to the appropriate officials?

JOHN BUCKLEY,
Seaton

Thanks for supporting Munchkins ponies

■ MUNCHKINS Miniature Shetland Rescue wishes to thank Tesco in Honiton and Seaton for allowing us to bag pack, bring ponies for meet and greet and fundraise.

We are delighted with the donations we received over the two days thanks to the generosity of Tesco's customers.

We would also like to thank Kilminster and Whitford churches for inviting us to bring a pony to the Palm Sunday services.

We hope everyone will follow our journey as we grow this charity to provide a home for life for these gorgeous miniature Shetlands.

Sculptures will be 'tatty in no time at all'

■ IT was very good to read Rich Webster's letter in Pulman's View From Seaton (April 7th) regarding the Fisherman's Gap sculptures in Seaton.

I had been very surprised and disappointed to read in a previous edition that there was overwhelming support for the sculptures at Fisherman's Gap and have written to East Devon District Council to tell them so. It was surprising because I have not met one person in favour.

I, too, am an artist (sometimes) and a great supporter of street art, and am aware that it invariably causes controversy but this is totally unnecessary in a situation that needs no explanation or emphasis. It will be vandalised and will look tatty in no time at all.

I do question the way that this proposal has been advertised and a stall at a market aimed at visitors one Saturday is hardly a democratic way of going about things.

HILARY ARNOLD,

Peco enjoys flying start to new season

THE early summer sunshine has proved to be just the tonic for Peco-rama as it opened its doors for the 2015 campaign.

The popular tourist attraction in Beer has been open all winter with its Play Station indoor facility for children but Easter marked the traditional start of the summer season against the background of the distinctive sound of the Beer Heights

Light Railway – and the sound of Pirates from the Seaton Drama Group last weekend.

“Even though Easter was two weeks earlier visitor numbers are up compared to last year and it has been an excellent start to the season,” said Tourism Manager Mark Ridgers.

“The weather has been very kind to us and the Pirate Day has again been a big success.”

Book on Beer lace is launched

WHAT started as a quest to research the family history of her partner ultimately led to Soux

White publishing her first book, writes Kevin Fahey.

Soux's interest in genealogy meant she was the ideal person to look into the family history of Glyn Holford, who is a distant relative of Ida Allen who ran the Old Lace Shop in Beer.

“It was the personal connection that got me started into researching Glyn's side of the family,” explained Soux.

“For three years on and off I have been researching her story and that of Jane Bidney, who supplied Queen Victoria's wedding dress lace and so many people said I ought to publish it that I was eventually persuaded to do just that.”

‘Jane and Ida. Beer Lace manufacturers to Royalty’ tells the incredible story of the women who supplied the lace that became world famous for its quality.

“It is more a social history of the two women rather than about lacemaking itself and the background of their working conditions,” added Soux.

“When you see old photos of the women making lace they are often working outside because they didn't have electricity and had to use natural light. It was that or working by candlelight.”

Jane Bidney was a real entrepreneur who left Beer in the 1830s to set up her own business as a lace dealer in St James which paved the way for her to supply the lace for Queen Victoria's wedding.

She was related down the years by marriage to Ida Allen, who started the Old Lace Shop in Beer and ran it until the mid 1950s, employing over 100 people at its peak, when it closed and was subsequently used as a café before reverting to a private residence.

Lacemaking still survives in Beer but as a hobby with the Beer Lace Group meeting regularly in the Congregational Hall.

If you want to find out more then Soux's book will be available from local shops.

Nominate your community transport heroes

DEVON County Council is seeking nominations for its annual Community Transport Awards.

The awards recognise outstanding service, commitment and contribution made by people involved in community transport in the county.

Anyone working or volunteering in the community transport sector can be nominated by passengers, staff or volunteers – and the closing date is Monday, April 27th.

Councillor Stuart Hughes, Devon County Council Cabinet Member for Highway Management, said: "We know the high regard in which community transport is held and this annual event is a way to thank the staff, volunteers and groups who make such a positive difference to the lives of thousands of people in Devon."

"We're keen to hear from as many people as possible to show our appreciation for our community transport heroes, and the awards are deserved recognition for their commitment and dedication."

Successful nominees and their proposer will be invited to a civic reception in Exeter on Thursday June 11th.

Nomination forms are available online at www.journeydevon.info/2015-community-transport-awards; alternatively, email comtrans@devon.gov.uk or call Devon County Council's Community Transport Team on 01392 382123.

Rachel to take on her first marathon challenge in memory of her brother NOVICE runner Rachel Ponting is set to tackle the Virgin Money London Marathon, writes ANDERS LARSSON.

Rachel is competing in aid of mental health charity Mind and in memory of her brother-in-law, Tim Ponting, who suffered from depression and took his own life in 2013.

Rachel, who lives just outside Honiton, said: "Mental ill-health comes in many different forms; depression, anxiety, personality disorders, drug or alcohol mis-use, post-traumatic stress are just a few."

"Being able to open up to friends, family or colleagues can often be a great help but is also a step that many sufferers feel unable to take due to fears that they will be rejected or misunderstood."

"Mind offers understanding, support and advice through a telephone infoline and local support groups, so I am really pleased to have the opportunity to run the London Marathon for them."

Rachel has pledged to raise £2,000 for the charity and her fundraising efforts have been supported by a number of local businesses; The Hare and Hounds in Sidbury, Wine World in Honiton, and Honiton Toy Shop have all donated prizes to the 'Guess My Marathon running time' competition which Rachel ran at Honiton Tesco on Tuesday, April 14th and will be running again today (Tuesday, April 21st).

Rachel added: "The training has been harder than I imagined – until recently my normal level of exercise would be the occasional half-hour jog. Getting up early and out into the cold and dark January mornings to train was a case of mind over matter (pardon the pun!)."

"Then I broke my toe in February which put an end to my training for a while. So I haven't yet run the full 26-mile distance but am hoping that adrenalin, the atmosphere of the event and thinking of all the support I have been given will help get me through"

The race is on Sunday, April 26th.

Donations can be made online at www.justgiving.com/RachelPonting

More details about Mind can be found at www.mind.org.uk

Chard News

Our business is growing!

LES and Margaret Gilbert, the owners of Chard News are optimistic about the future of their business.

They describe themselves as 'news specialists' rather than newsagents. In addition to local, national and international papers there are over 700 magazines titles on display in their store - with thousands more for customers to order if they don't immediately see the title they would like.

From 11th May 2015 they will also be offering a newspaper delivery service. Firstly to homes and businesses in Chard and then to the surrounding villages and towns. And they are already signing up customers.

"We have taken inspiration from a business in the South East" says Les Gilbert. "They deliver newspapers to over 3000 customers every day of the week using a professional, adult delivery team and a small fleet of vehicles. We think there is room for us to offer a similar service in South Somerset, West Dorset and East Devon."

The shop also boasts an impressive range of stationery that includes print cartridges and printer paper alongside greeting cards, drinks and confectionery.

Les is a great believer of add on services - "drivers of footfall" - and the shop has an impressive list that includes a No1 Currency Bureau de Change (offering market leading rates) and a DHL Service Point that allows customers to send express parcels to the UK and overseas quickly and easily.

This is a shop that is very much open for business. Online (chard-news.co.uk), on Twitter (@Chard_News) and on Chard's Fore Street!

Stamps and Postcards at Chilcotts

DO you have a collection of stamps or postcards? Do you know someone who a collection of stamps or postcards? The likelihood is that you would answer "Yes" to at least one of these questions.

"Collecting stamps has been a popular past-time since 1840 when the Penny Black was introduced," explained partner, Duncan Chilcott. "Many collectors start off during childhood, aiming to collect examples from around the world – an engaging way of learning geography."

While stamp collecting as a child's hobby has been declining in Britain, it is growing in popularity in China. "Consequently China is a growing market within the philatelic world," said Duncan.

Postcards continue to be popular in the UK. "British collectors are seeking early Postcards, mostly Edwardian or earlier, with subject matters such as Shipping, Railways, Mining, Aviation, or disasters being most desirable." Shown is a rare postcard of a colliery; it was among three albums that sold for £700.

The next sale will take place on Saturday 6th June, it will also include coins, medals and Militaria.

Chilcotts is still accepting entries and will be holding a specialist Stamp, Postcard and Medals Valuation morning on Thursday 30th April at The Silver Street Saleroom, Silver Street, Honiton (just off the centre of the High Street, behind St. Pauls church).

For further details please ring 01404 47783, or visit www.chilcottsauctioneers.co.uk.

THE next Antiques and Vintage Collectables Fair takes place at Ilminster Arts Centre this Saturday, April 25th.

The Fair is a browser's paradise and there is always a wide range of stalls selling everything from vintage china, furniture and textiles to glassware, antique jewellery and silver, plus collectables and curios. The Fair is also popular with collectors too, and for those with a serious interest it is recommended to arrive early - doors open at 9.30am.

Meanwhile in the Main Gallery, things take a turn for the contemporary with the Art Centre's latest exhibition, The Magnificent Seven. This showcases the work of seven talented local artists, and features an interesting mix of media, including stained glass and copper plate engravings.

Visitors can also take the opportunity to browse the Arts Centre's well-stocked Craft Shop or pull up a seat to enjoy a coffee and a snack in our vibrant Café (open until 3pm). Ilminster Arts Centre really is the perfect place to relax and enjoy a leisurely Saturday.

If you are interested in having a stall, please call: 01460 54973.

Home grown jam!

THE IAC Jammers are a group of musicians who meet every third Monday of the month at Ilminster Arts Centre for an informal jam session. Many of them are experienced musicians who have their own bands so their occasional concert performances playing the music they love are a treat not to be missed by jazz aficionados.

The Jammers play mostly well-known tunes in a modern/mainstream style so this will be an evening of accessible, enjoyable jazz. The line-up of musicians takes the form of a four-piece rhythm section accompanying seven other experienced jammers.

The soloists are Duncan Anselm,

The Jazz Jam gigs are free of charge but a donation to the Arts Centre would be appreciated. There are no suppers for this event, but there is a well-stocked bar!

Come along and enjoy an evening of music 'on the house' and support our talented local musicians at the same time.

The Jazz Jam Gig takes place at Ilminster Arts Centre this Friday, April 24th from 8pm. Admission is free, but donations to the Arts Centre are appreciated. For more details call 01460 55783.

Rising star tenor Rupert Charlesworth in Ilminster

THERE is something rather exciting and special about catching a future star in concert early on in their career, particularly when the star is home grown talent. This is certainly the case for Concerts in the West audiences who have the opportunity to see the Devon born tenor Rupert Charlesworth live at venues across Dorset and Somerset on May 8th and 9th.

This brilliant young singer has won a string of awards since he graduated from The Royal Academy of Music. He was Academy Laureate of the Festival D'Aix-en-Provence in 2011 and followed this up by winning both the jury and audience prizes at the 2013 Handel Singing Competition. This success was repeated at the 2014 International Singing Competition for Baroque Opera Pietro Antonio Cesti.

Rupert will be accompanied on this tour by the acclaimed French pianist Edwige Herchenroder who is already in great demand as a leading song accompanist, répétiteur and vocal coach.

The duo perform at Ilminster Arts Centre, South Street on Friday, May 8th at 8pm. Tickets are £15, available by calling 01460 55783 or from the website at www.themeetinghouse.org.uk.

On Saturday, May 9th, 7.30pm at The Hub, Church Street, Lyme Regis. Tickets are £15, available from Serendip Fine Books (Broad Street) by calling 01297 442594.

Lively show puts Beer Wurlitzer through its paces!

After an absence of several years, the exuberant Chris Powell returned to a warm welcome at Beer on Saturday, April 11th.

Chris is very much in demand in the UK, Europe and the USA, and plays at many concerts in New Zealand and Australia. In fact Chris, who was born in 1971, spent the first few years of his life in New Zealand as his parents emigrated there. Music has been Chris's life - as a chorister, pianist and then an electronic keyboard player. At 18 he played at the Tower Ballroom and continued to do so for five years.

Chris is one of the UK's most popular performers, always in demand, so it was a great pleasure to listen to his lively programme of popular music played on the oldest Wurlitzer in the UK. His Gershwin, Abba, swing and show tune medleys were particularly enjoyed and there was general agreement that this was one of the best ever shows. He was appreciative of the improvements to the Wurlitzer, describing it as 'a spring chicken rather than an old lady of 90'!

The programme of top theatre organists continues as Michael Wooldridge returns after an outstanding show last year. So do come along on Saturday, May 9th, to the Congregational Church, Fore Street, Beer, EX12 3JQ, at 2.00pm, admission is £7 on the door which includes interval refreshments. For further information please phone 01297 24892 or visit the website at www.beerwurlitzer.org.uk.

Players' Three Nights of Comedy at Honiton College

HONITON Players perform three nights of their new show 'Outside Edge' next week.

'Outside Edge' is set in a pavilion during the course of an important cricket match. Somehow the complications of the match pale before those occurring among the various WAGs and players.

'Outside Edge' was made into a very successful T.V. series starring Brenda Blethyn, Josie Lawrence and Timothy Spall, to name just a few.

Performances are at Honiton Community College at 7.30pm nightly from Thursday, April 23rd to Saturday, April 25th.

Tickets are £8 available at Honiton Toy Shop.

New album tour for Roberts and Lakeman

KATHRYN Roberts & Sean Lakeman are proud to announce their album 'Tomorrow Will Follow Today', their boldest musical statement to date. After being voted "Best Duo" in the BBC Radio 2 Folk Awards in 2013, and also nominated for "Best Original Song" (The Ballad of Andy Jacobs), in 'Tomorrow Will Follow Today' they add two rarely covered traditional songs to eight confidently written compositions to create a superb new album.

This husband and wife duo had been absent from the music scene for almost a decade before their highly-acclaimed 'Hidden People' CD (2012) was released; Sean busy touring the world with brother Seth's band whilst Kathryn remained in Devon bringing up the couple's twin daughters.

The Roberts-Lakeman name has become synonymous with quality during their musical careers which started when they were signed to a major label as teenagers. Now after nearly two decades in music, Kathryn's sublime vocals merge seamlessly with Sean's deft and inventive live guitar work on stage - and his award-winning sonic skills in the studio. In addition to his chart-topping hit records for brother Seth Lakeman, Sean has this year alone produced albums or tracks with The Levellers, Billy Bragg, Frank Turner, Imelda May and Bellowhead, as well as a string of other folk/acoustic acts.

Kathryn Roberts and Sean Lakeman play at The Phoenix, Exeter on Thursday, April 30th. Support comes from Hattie Briggs. For more details and tickets call 01392 667080 or visit the website at www.exeterphoenix.org.uk

Artist Nicholas Eastwood discusses his upcoming exhibition at the Beehive, Honiton

"The works (approximately 65) in this Exhibition (painting, drawing, collage and ceramics) are derived from two main sources: music - both classical and flamenco - and secondly from experiences and places abroad, while on academic lecture exchanges over a fifteen year period for the University of Exeter to Europe and as an art student in Paris in the 60s. The majority of this Exhibition will be on show in October of this year at the Wolfson College Gallery, Oxford University.

"In many respects my works are a diary, recording the Past, not necessarily major events but ones that I wanted to remember, ones important to me at that time. Now, most, if not all my work, is connected in some way with countries overseas, and distant horizons, although I do see myself as a very British painter.

"I shall always be indebted to two of my dear friends and colleagues: Raymond Calcraft, Former Head of Hispanic Studies at the University of Exeter and Conductor of the Royal Philharmonic Orchestra (RPO) Ensemble for making me seriously aware of Classical Music - the music of Joaquín Rodrigo in particular. My other great classical mentor, the late Dr Ulrike Schwartz, artist in his own right and Conductor of the Georgian Youth Orchestra. Under their guidance I have found an unlimited vocabulary of shapes and moods, listening to other orchestras' interpretation and attending RPO's rehearsals etc. This culminated in my displaying 22 large works above the stage of the Royal Festival Hall with the Royal Philharmonic Orchestra, the Exeter Philharmonic Choir for the Rodrigo Centenary Concert in 2002. The Contessa de Aranjuez, Cecilia Rodrigo, the daughter of the Composer, has since become over the years a great friend and has always supported my work. She in fact awarded me the Schott Medal in Madrid in February 2013.

"After being introduced to Pepe Romero by Raymond Calcraft in 1995 (both lifelong friends of Rodrigo) and hearing him play Flamenco, I immediately wanted to learn more of this fascinating and ancient tradition in music. This eventually led me to Malaga. The paintings and collage in this Exhibition will include a selection from a new Series Images from Malaga 2012-14, and are simply painted from informal flamenco evening concerts, including dance, at the Keliye Academy in Malaga. I have since worked with many Spanish guitarists who have explained and taught me various forms of flamenco music specially the influence of Arabic and North Africa music on that of Southern Spain. To give a background there is a small selection of personal photographs of guitarists with whom I have worked or who have influenced my work. I only now have come to realise the real wonder of what a single instrument can achieve - not only as a solo - but also in concerts with an orchestra. The interpretations and variations are endless." Nicholas Eastwood.

The exhibition opened this Monday (April 20th). For more information visit www.nicholaseastwood.com

Psychic Vibration on the Medium Wave

EX-HAIRDRESSER Steve Holbrook, regarded by many as one of the UK's top Clairvoyant Mediums, is visiting locally very shortly, and he explains how he hears the voices of our loved ones that have passed away. His ability started from behind the salon chair, and he now visits Theatres and Hotels around the country, and as far as the Caribbean, demonstrating his unique ability to act as a telephone exchange between this world and the Spirit world.

Steve says that he was always aware from being a child that life existed beyond the grave, when he awoke to find 5 soldiers marching through his bedroom, but could only see the top half of them floating through the room. "This was very un-nerving experience but it was to give me an early glimpse of what was to come, and now it's as natural as breathing to me"

Steve started work in Leeds city centre in a busy hairdressing salon, and feels that the years he spent behind the chair, having that personal contact with the customers, stimulated this rare, yet natural ability to hear the voices of spirits. People used to come in and book for their hair cut, and often got more than they bargained for when he passed on a message from their loved one. Steve was always the busiest stylist, and had a six week waiting list if people didn't re-book immediately, and says "I often wonder if they kept coming back for my ability as a hair stylist, or the possibility that they might receive a message from a relative who had passed away!"

He now gives messages of reassurance to people who have lost their loved ones, and by Steve has three books out, 'Light in the Darkness', 'Out of this World', and 'Survival', and these all offer a true insight into the day-to-day life of a working medium. Steve's beliefs on many areas of Spiritualism, and a great background in to Steve's life.

Steve has raised tens of thousands of pounds for charities over the years, £50,000 for his local hospice in Wakefield, £5,000 for MacMillan Support, and most recently our current total for PACT - a charity that helps terminally ill children and their parents across the country - is almost £21,000. He is dedicated to raising funds and awareness for this charity.

Stephen Holbrook will host an evening of Clairvoyance at the Beehive, Honiton on Friday, May 8th, doors 7pm for 7.30pm.

Tickets are £17 in advance or £18 on the door. To book call 01823 666292 or visit www.steveholbrook.co.uk

Visions of Childhood

PIXIES once ruled pre-Christian East Devon, it is said. They resented the arrival of Christ's church when the bells were being delivered to St Mary's Otter, tried to steal them. They have been banished ever since.

But in 1973 the Ottery born poet Samuel Taylor Coleridge celebrated their presence as earth spirits in his poem 'Songs of the Pixies'. Thanks to special dispensation granted by the vicar of Otter, this poem will be read by pixies inside of St Mary's for the first time. The performance traces Coleridge's and other Otter valley writer's 'visions of childhood' and how they connect to the now threatened landscape of East Devon and the Otter valley. It will include poems by Patricia Beer (1919-99); extracts of 'The Otterbury Incident' (1948), by C Day Lewis (based on a group of Kings School students), and Harry Potter. The text of the performance is based on the book 'Literature and Landscape in East Devon' by Peter Nasmyth (who is co-author of the performance with Mike Temple, former Head of English at Exeter School.)

The performance takes place at St Mary's Church, Ottery St Mary on Saturday, May 9th, 6.30 for 7pm. Free entrance. Tea will be served afterwards.

The Blues Caravan rolls into The Barn

THE BARN at The Square and Compass, near Ilminster, welcomes a truly International act courtesy of German Record Label Ruf Records on Sunday, April 26th.

Ruf Records first presented the "Blues Caravan - Girls With Guitars" in 2011. The three electrifying musicians on that year's edition of the Blues Caravan tour caused such euphoria among international blues audiences that they were back by popular demand the following year. Now, starting in January 2015, the 11th annual Blues Caravan takes to the road with three new, young and dynamic "Girls With Guitars" who are ready to conquer the blues world.

Hailing from northern Italy, Eliana Cargnelutti is an award-winning singer and guitarist who can do it all.

During her budding career, she has worked in a number of different musical genres - but the blues has a special place in her heart. Influenced by contemporary masters such as Bonnie Raitt, Ana Popovic and Joe Bonamassa, Cargnelutti combines boundless energy with impressive technical chops.

Sadie Johnson may be the youngest musician ever on the Blues Caravan - but this 18-year-old wunderkind has already made quite a name for herself. The native of Bloomington, Indiana has proven equally adept at playing classic old-school country blues like Robert Johnson and modern-day blues-rock like her hero Eric Clapton.

Heather Crosse, a respected bassist from Clarksdale, Mississippi, provides the earthy foundation. Her band Heavy Suga' & the Sweetones has appeared frequently at the world-famous Ground Zero Blues Club and has performed at major festivals, opening for B.B. King, Robert Plant and others.

Tickets for the night are £12 in advance, and are available from The Barn at Square and Compass, by calling 01823 480467 (to pay by card), online at www.mojopromo.co.uk or from Black Cat Records, Taunton.

Musical celebration for three birthdays

A RATHER extraordinary coincidence is provoking a joyous musical celebration in Colyton on May 3rd. It has emerged that three eminent musicians, all with close ties to Colyton, will be marking special birthdays. The composer and conductor William Llewellyn will be 90, Nicholas Brown, Musical Director of St Andrew's Church, will be 60, and exactly in the middle, David Gabe, retired organist and choir trainer, will be 75 - on that very same day!

One of the most popular figures to be found strolling down Church Street of a morning is 'Bill' Llewellyn, erstwhile Director of Music at Charterhouse. A fine musician, a composer and choral conductor known and loved by a vast swathe of the musical world, Bill is the sunniest of characters and has an encyclopaedic memory for anecdotes - you will never spend more than 40 seconds in his company without having a good laugh.

And by an extraordinary chance he shares his birthday with Nicholas Brown, Director of Music at St Andrew's Church who was born exactly 30 years later. 'Nick' as we know him, has fostered and nurtured the choir here for 25 years, composing, conducting, arranging music and playing the organ for all the services. Most importantly he has taken endless pains to encourage the junior choir members, organising concerts for them to give and courses to attend, and ferrying them here and everywhere. With all this he is himself a fine performer on the flute and piano, giving frequent recitals on both. - it is hard to imagine a greater musical contribution to a town.

In order to celebrate, the pianist Simon Watterton will be giving a recital at St Andrew's Church. Simon has visited Colyton on many previous occasions and never fails to thrill audiences with his playing - always sensitive, frequently virtuosic, and with a patent love for the music always taking precedence.

Simon trained at the Purcell School and at the Royal College of Music in London, where he won many awards. He is a regular recitalist at venues across the UK, including performances at Wigmore Hall, St. John's Smith Square, St. Martin-in-the-Fields and many others. He featured as a Rising Star in the International Piano Quarterly magazine, and thereafter completed a cycle of the complete piano sonatas of Beethoven in London. He recently played live on Intune on BBC Radio 3 with the London International Players and will soon record his first CD.

His programme for this birthday concert will include works by Liszt, Mozart, Schumann and Beethoven, as well as some mischievous re-writes of Bach by Messrs. Percy Grainger and Nicholas Brown.

The concert will be on Sunday, May 3rd at St Andrew's Church, Colyton, starting at 4pm. There will be no charge for entry, but a retiring collection will be made to help pay Simon's costs.

Bella Hardy comes to Exeter With The Dawn

BELLA Hardy's seventh solo album With The Dawn - her first since being named BBC Radio 2 Folk Singer Of The Year in 2014 - isn't just the latest collection of songs from this prolific and ingenious artist. The album is an account of one year of her life. Where previously Bella has adapted and explored traditional ballads and fables to tell her contemporary folk tales, the stories that inspired these songs are her own experiences: good and bad, happy or sad.

With The Dawn is a more intimate and reflective album than before. Working with producer Ben Seal, the arrangements are more instinctive, more reactive, as befits the mind-set that informed the lyrics. Vivid brass gives way to lonesome piano; choral voices peal; banjos emerge out of beats and blips. Elements of the initial demos, sometimes recorded into a phone as the thoughts occurred, have been kept. Whatever instrument was nearest to hand was grabbed and deployed whenever and wherever (even on one occasion in the bath) giving With The Dawn its striking immediacy.

Bella Hardy's album release tour for With The Dawn comes to Exeter Phoenix on Wednesday, May 6th at 8pm. Tickets are £12 or £10 for concessions, available online at www.exeterphoenix.org.uk or by calling 01392 667080.

Peugeot 308 R HYbrid

FEAST your eyes on the ultimate 308. PEUGEOT has unveiled a stunning new version of the award-winning compact family hatchback – with a combined 500bhp and four-wheel drive.

Badged the PEUGEOT 308 R HYbrid, it has been developed by PEUGEOT Sport, the brand's famous in-house engineering and racing division, which last year unveiled the critically acclaimed RCZ R. The car's plug-in petrol hybrid powertrain pushes the boundaries of sporting prowess in the segment, offering a truly extraordinary performance. The car is capable of hitting 62mph (100km/h) in 4.0 seconds, yet still has astonishingly low CO2 emissions of 70g/km.

"PEUGEOT Sport's expertise applies an uncompromising approach to meeting targets. With our experience in hybrid vehicles developed with the PEUGEOT 908, the high-performance hybrid powertrain fitted to the 308 gives a glimpse of the potential for ultra-sports models in the future," says Bruno Famin, Director at PEUGEOT Sport.

The contemporary style and sporting prowess of the 308 – the Car of the Year 2014 – remain clearly visible. However, the 308 R HYbrid also re-imagines design cues explored on the Quartz concept, seen most recently at March's Geneva Motor Show.

With front and rear tracks widened by 80mm and riding on 235/35 R19 tyres, the PEUGEOT 308 R HYbrid has been created to devour the road. Its front end styling is dynamic and imposing, with expressive louvres on the bonnet and sharp edges combined with sleek surfaces in its bumper.

The grille features a chequered pattern which allows air to cool the innovative 500hp powertrain. The side scoops are home to the sequential LED indicators, while the central scoop sports the 308 R HYbrid signature.

In profile, the 308 R HYbrid's dramatic paint finish can be truly appreciated. Cloaked in an intense blue and developed using fluorescent pigments and glass particles, this colour salutes both the hybrid powertrain and the shade historically reserved for French competition vehicles. On the rear doors, the blue is matched with matte black, giving a new interpretation of the car's clean lines.

At the rear, the PEUGEOT 308 R HYbrid is remarkably understated, with a narrow spoiler at the top of the tailgate reinforcing the aerodynamics. The bumper's twin air scoops help keep the battery temperature down by drawing out the hot air, whilst the lower section is embellished with a touch of white emphasising the car's dynamic character.

New Production-Ready Ford Vignale Mondeo

▲ The new Ford Vignale Mondeo

FORD Motor Company today unveiled the production version of the Ford Vignale Mondeo – the first vehicle to be introduced as part of Ford's new Vignale brand.

Each Ford Vignale model is hand-finished in a special Vignale Centre at Ford's manufacturing facility in Valencia, Spain. Available in four-door and estate bodystyles, the Ford Vignale Mondeo delivers superior refinement with the European debut of Ford's Active Noise Cancellation technology, quilted and tuxedo-stitched leather interior and exclusive Vignale Noccia metallic paintcolour.

Customers can now use Ford's new dedicated Ford Vignale internet destination and online configurator to explore options and pricing. The Ford Vignale Mondeo will be available to order from May at new flagship FordStores opening across the UK, priced from £29,045.

The Ford Vignale Mondeo delivers advanced technologies including Pre-Collision Assist with Pedestrian Detection, which can reduce the severity of some frontal collisions involving vehicles and pedestrians, or help drivers avoid some impacts altogether. Powerful and fuel efficient powertrains include Ford's new 210PS Bi-turbo 2.0-litre TDCi diesel, 240PS EcoBoost petrol, and 187PS petrol-electric hybrid. Ford's Intelligent All-Wheel Drive (iAWD) which automatically enhances traction and road-holding, is also available.

Vignale customers will also receive a personalised service for the duration of their vehicle ownership, supported by a Vignale relationship manager and 24-hour free-phone assistance from the Vignale OneCall service.

"Ford Vignale is the highest expression of the Ford brand in Europe, bringing together award-winning design with a unique ownership experience," said Jim Farley, Ford executive vice president and president, Europe, Middle East and Africa. "Our vision for Vignale is to create a modern, contemporary upscale experience that makes Vignale a valued part of customers' lives, starting with the Ford Vignale Mondeo, and later this year with introduction of the Ford Vignale S-MAX."

Ford's new Vignale Service smartphone app will support customers with GPS-enabled services including Vignale Park Me, which allows drivers to record an exact location and time elapsed since parking their vehicle. Using online map data, the app can also help drivers locate fuel stations, and provides a one-touch connection with emergency services or Vignale OneCall.

Enhanced refinement and exclusive style

The Ford Vignale Mondeo delivers a whisper-quiet, smooth and comfortable ride using sophisticated technologies and an advanced chassis structure.

Ford's innovative Active Noise Cancellation system* enhances interior refinement. Using three cabin microphones, the system is able to monitor engine noise in the interior. Advanced audio technology directs opposing sound waves through the audio system to cancel out engine noise and improve cabin ambience.

The Ford Vignale Mondeo interior also features enhanced sound insulation to better isolate road noise from the cabin. Acoustic glass helps reduce wind noise to levels normally experienced only in the premium segment.

Ford's integral link rear suspension offers a smoother ride, in particular for rear seat passengers, and reduces noise levels by allowing the wheels to move further rearwards on impact with uneven road surfaces. For front seat passengers, comfort can be optimised by Ford Multi-Contour Seats with Active Motion massage function. Designed to reduce muscle fatigue, particularly during longer journeys, the seats use a system of 11 inflatable cushions to deliver an unobtrusive massaging effect for thighs and lower back.

Ford Vignale Mondeo seats are offered in exclusive Vignale leather trim. Laser-cut for high precision, the material features unique Vignale hexagonal quilting and tuxedo stitching with soft-touch elements that extend to the instrument panel, centre console, armrest, and door top-rolls.

Advice For Your L-Test Teenager

GEM Motoring Assist has some advice designed to reduce the stress parents can experience when their children reach 17 and want to get behind the wheel

Counting the cost

It's a good idea to have a frank discussion about finances before your teenager even applies for a provisional licence. Discuss the extent to which you'll be able to help pay for lessons and how much he or she should plan on contributing.

Learning to drive is a costly business, and it's important to have a realistic idea of the sums involved beforehand. Otherwise you can get into a situation where the teenager is making progress but has to take a break from lessons because of cash-flow problems.

How many lessons your child needs will depend on natural aptitude and whether or not there's the opportunity to practise. But it's a good idea to budget for between 35 and 50 hours, meaning a total tuition bill of between £1000 and £1400. The provisional licence costs £34 online, a theory test costs £25, and the practical test costs £62.

Choosing the right instructor

The first step in the process is to check that any potential instructor is a fully qualified Approved Driving Instructor (ADI). They can be identified by the green octagonal badge on their windscreen. A pink badge means the instructor is still a trainee. Then ask your friends and family members for personal recommendations, and follow up with additional research.

Call potential instructors for a chat to get a feel for them and their approach. And get your teenager to talk to them as well. If the instructor is someone they feel they can get on with, that's really going to help the learning process.

The need to practise

It's always a good idea for learners to practise between lessons as it gives them the opportunity to consolidate what they've been taught. Clocking up more hours at the wheel will also increase their confidence and expose them to a greater range of driving conditions. However, the prospect of sitting beside a learner-driver child can seriously unsettle some parents. If you feel like this, then there's no point in forcing yourself to take your teen out for practice drives as it will just be upsetting for both of you.

Anyone supervising a learner driver needs to be over 21 and to have held a driving licence for the type of car they'll be using (manual or automatic) for at least three years.

You'll also need to sort out suitable insurance. If your teenager is learning to drive in the family car then contact your insurance company and arrange to have them put on as a named driver. L-plates (L or D plates in Wales) will need to be displayed at the front and rear of the vehicle when they're at the wheel.

When it comes to deciding which aspect of their driving they should be practising, it's best to liaise with the driving instructor, who will know what they need to work on. Of course, it's important for parents to realise that the driving test has changed a lot in the last 20 years, and that driving instructors will be teaching the skills in the most up-to-date way.

Test time...

Exams are nerve-racking at the best of times, but driving tests can feel particularly harrowing. So be supportive, as teenagers will not only be afraid of letting you down, they will also feel under pressure from friends. A reputable driving instructor won't put students forward for the test unless they've reached the correct standard.

A lifetime of safe driving

It pays to book additional training after the test, particularly so that your son or daughter can become familiar with safe, confident motorway driving. You will need to let your insurer know about the move from provisional to full licence status. Adding an 18-year-old to your policy is likely to cost several hundred pounds, but there are discounts if you agree to use some sort of telematics device that monitors and records how he or she drives.

Mercedes-Benz Concept GLC Coupé

IN A flowing transition, Mercedes-Benz lands the next coupé: the Concept GLC Coupé is a near-production-standard study that carries the successful GLE Coupé formula over into a more compact segment. The dynamically expressive show car combines typical stylistic features of a coupé with the sensually pure design idiom of coming SUV generations. This emotively appealing fusion is further enriched with details that are strong in character. A twin-blade radiator grille, powerdome on the bonnet and a four-pipe exhaust system form an aesthetic contrast to the harmonious, almost organic main body section. On the other hand, elements from the rugged off-road world, such as enormous 21-inch tyres, front and rear underbody protection, increased ground clearance and side running boards, are indicative of the off-road performance potential of the Concept GLC Coupé.

Gorden Wagener, Head of Design at Daimler AG, puts it in a nutshell: "With its modern and sensual design idiom, the Concept GLC Coupé gives a foretaste of future SUV models from Mercedes-Benz. At the same time, it embraces the typical values of tradition-steeped Mercedes-Benz coupés."

The same successful blend of the multifunctional SUV and the emotively appealing coupé world of Mercedes-Benz that was so enthusiastically welcomed with the GLE Coupé is now repeated with the Concept GLC Coupé. However, the near-production-standard show car inhabits a more compact segment, as demonstrated by the external length of 4.73-metres and the 2.83-metre wheelbase. These two dimensions, together with the striking and muscular main body section, elongated greenhouse and large 21-inch wheels, provide an ideal basis for the typical, almost dramatic proportions of the sportily youthful coupé generation with the characteristic off-road touch.

Distinctive front end, sculptural headlamp design

At the front, a short, crisp overhang with upright radiator grille and twin-blade louvre – characteristic of sporty Mercedes-Benz models – gives a first indication of the sporty philosophy behind the Concept GLC Coupé. The credo "Born to race on every ground" is confirmed by the powerdome on the bonnet, the sweeping lines of the A-wing below the radiator grille, the large side air intakes and the visually dominant underbody protection. Like all the trim elements on the concept vehicle, this typical SUV feature radiates in silver shadow to form an attractive counterpoint to the solar-beam paintwork and the all-round claddings in matt gun metal magnolia paintwork.

Reminiscent of light sculptures, striking LED headlamps decisively shape the expressive face of the Concept GLC Coupé. All functions are united in one housing: for illumination, the daytime running lamps and turn indicators use the upper strip inserts, dubbed "eyebrows" by the designers. Below them are three rotating lenses, which appear to positively float in the deep, three-dimensional space and which adapt to the situation to optimally illuminate the road or terrain. Of course, the headlamps are non-dazzling for oncoming traffic in lower beam, upper beam, cornering light or active light mode. This is achieved by blanking out the light cone in the area of oncoming vehicles.

Side profile with low-slung coupé greenhouse and large SUV wheels

The perfection with which the intrinsically contrary design worlds of the coupé and the SUV have been brought into harmony with each other is revealed in particular by a side view of the just under 1.60-metre-high Concept GLC Coupé with the typical, elongated roof line of a sports coupé. Like the integrated roof rails and fully recessed door handles, the squat greenhouse with its frameless side windows blends perfectly into the vehicle's flanks to additionally underscore the coupé-like character. The interplay with the high beltline, wide shoulders and accentuated wheel lips gives rise to extreme proportions that lend the Concept GLC Coupé a thrilling dynamism. This highly charged interaction is given extra emphasis by the drawn-in waist between the dropping line and the lower, rearwards ascending light-catching contour.

A clear indication of the more prominent SUV genes is given by sill extensions reminiscent of the side running boards on a classic SUV. Flush with the outside edge of the body, wide 21-inch wheels with large, heavily profiled tyres combine with the relatively high ground clearance to endorse the sportily dynamic off-road ambitions of the Concept GLC Coupé.

Rear end with distinct coupé heritage

The rear view of the precisely two-metre-wide Concept GLC Coupé in particular reveals the wide, muscular shoulders with harmoniously modelled wheel arches that house 53.3 cm (21-inch) wheels with 285/45 R 21 wide-base tyres. The four polished stainless-steel tailpipes of the exhaust system provide a visual highlight. Mounted in pairs above an A-wing similar to the one at the front and featuring characteristic underbody protection, the tailpipes underscore the sporty look of the coupé.

Overall, it is the styling of the rear end that most clearly accentuates the coupé genes of the concept vehicle. Narrow, split tail lights, centrally positioned brand star and a sharp spoiler lip emphasise a design line that made its debut with the S-Class Coupé and which all Mercedes-Benz coupé models have since followed. Relocated to the lower section of the bumper, the number plate as well as the typical form of the rear window with its rounded upper area are among the further stylistic features.

Local football round-up

Late double sees Honiton closing in on title Hawks set to swoop to promotion spot - Fenny hit Rovers for 10!

South-West Peninsula League
(Saturday, April 11th)
NEWTON ABBOT SPURS 1
SIDMOUTH TOWN 1

ADAM Dyson's late equaliser ensured Newton Abbot Spurs gained a creditable point from the visiting Vikings at The Rec.

The game itself was one of very few clear-cut chances with defences on top. Add to that a hard bobbly pitch and the game lacked any real quality.

Spurs almost took the lead on 13 minutes. Chris Darke's corner was met by a glancing header from Roles but he saw his effort cleared off the line.

The Vikings went ahead with their first meaningful attack five minutes later. A well-worked right wing corner routine was delivered from Adam Kanaah and met by an unmarked Cameron Vere whose header was blocked but Riki Pitter was on hand to slot home the loose ball from close range.

Pitter almost doubled the lead on the half hour mark but was thwarted by a last ditch tackle by Spurs' Chris Metters.

Home skipper Kevin Dadd was somewhat fortunate to stay on the pitch after pulling back Pitter as he raced clear on 54 minutes but only received a talking to from the referee despite being booked for a similar challenge in the first half.

It took until the 64th minute for the next shot in anger with Sidmouth's pacy front man Mark Pavey firing over from 25 yards.

Spurs were then thwarted by another goal line clearance on 79 minutes after a volley from Metters who was then denied by a terrific save by Sidmouth keeper Charlie Ledger.

The home side finally made a breakthrough just three minutes from the end of normal time through their top scorer Dyson.

Matt Williams' long throw in was flicked on by Metters and despite seeing his first effort blocked, Dyson volleyed home the rebound to earn his side a share of the spoils.

AXMINSTER TOWN 2 EXWICK VILLA 3
SATURDAY's basement battle played at Ottery St Mary saw visitors Exwick Villa strike early through Tom Taylor.

But the Tigers were level within a couple of minutes courtesy of Alex Wheatley's seventh league goal of the campaign.

Callum Hoare restored the lead for Villa midway through the half only for Sam Dibbling to pounce for the Tigers' second equaliser on the half-hour.

But the point slipped from the hosts grasp when Dan Harris netted what proved to be the winner midway through the second-half.

AXMINSTER HOSPITAL CUP SF
Budleigh Salterton 1
Axminster Town 3

AXMINSTER Town put a turbulent season behind them to book a place in the Axminster Hospital Cup Final after coming from behind to beat Budleigh Salterton 3-1 at their Greenway Lane Ground on Wednesday evening.

Sam Dibbling cancelled out the hosts' opener as the first-half ended 1-1.

Top-scorer Dibbling put his side ahead after the restart with a fine header from an incisive cross from Alex Wheatley.

The win was sealed when Ben Turner, continuing his good form after returning from injury, found the top corner with a crisp shot from the edge of the area.

Axminster's opponents in the final (date and venue to be confirmed) will be either Chard Town or Sidmouth Town.

D & E reports
Cheriton Fitzpaine 7 Axminster Res 2
Division Three
ON a hard bumpy pitch, with very little grass left and a gale force wind blowing from one end to the other this was never going to be a classic.

Cheriton had the better of the opening exchanges and took the lead on ten minutes from an unfortunate own goal and increased their lead mid-way through the half.

Daniel Beer got a goal back in the 35th minute but the Cherries increased their lead soon after the break and got another shortly afterwards.

To their credit the Tigers did not give up, creating many chances playing against the wind. And it was no surprise when Ax got one back from the penalty spot, put away by Matt Preece.

The young Tigers conceded three late goals to make the final score seem very one-sided, but this was not really the case.

Caretaker manager Alan Beer was pleased with the way his team acquitted themselves, especially young Joe Urquart, who although not scoring certainly has an eye for goal.

The last game of the season is a trip to Davey Fort for a local derby against Lyme Regis tomorrow (Wednesday 6.45 ko).

Beer Albion Reserves 2 Kentisbeare 1
BEER Reserves completed their league programme with a stirring 2-1 victory over table-toppers Kentisbeare.

From the kick-off the league leaders seemed surprised by the Fishermen's industry and quality.

The home side denied the visitors space to play and the Kents only real threat in the whole game was from delivering the long ball in the hope that their quick forwards could catch the Albion defence square.

It almost paid off on a couple of occasions but Beer looking very solid at the back coped well with the threat.

The hard pitch made the ball difficult to control and so from a purist's point of view there wasn't a great deal of free flowing football.

But Beer opened the scoring on 14 minutes through Callum Gribble. The away linesman had flagged for offside against Gribble just inside the Kentisbeare half but was overruled by the referee. Instead of playing to the whistle the Kents protested the decision but Gribble continued his run and bundled the ball over the line after the keeper had parried the first effort.

For the rest of the half the game was a stalemate and Beer looked fairly comfortable with centre backs Josh Moughton and Robert Adkin coping with the long ball threat and Matt and Simon Smith controlling the midfield.

Just on the stroke of half time the visitors frustration showed through when one of their midfielders was sent off for a high tackle on Simon Smith.

Beer came out in the second half with a new centre-back pairing. Both Moughton and Robert Adkin had suffered knocks so Matt Smith and Joe Adkin slotted in and the back line looked just as solid.

Immediately after the break Beer went 2-0 ahead through Tom Neale. Ross Broome crossed to the far post where Neale was lurking and he coolly slotted home from 8 yards.

As the half wore on, the game opened up as Kentisbeare desperately sought to get back into it, but it was Beer who carved out the better chances with both Tom Neale and Ben Abbott going close and full back Josh Harrison being foiled by the Kentisbeare keeper.

In the dying minutes the visitors were handed a lifeline when they equalised after some sloppy defending but The Fishermen held on for a well-deserved win.

Beer are guaranteed 4th place in the table - a creditable performance for a team with some young inexperienced players and bodes well for the Club's future.

Beer Reserves rounded off a great weekend with a 5-1 victory on Sunday against local rivals Seaton Reserves in the quarter final of the Golesworthy Cup.

D&E LEAGUE ROUND-UP

with Collin Goodwin

DESPITE a smaller programme than usual, half a dozen teams throughout the League clocked up double figures including two of the Premier title chasers.

FENITON, who suffered a 2-1 reverse in midweek against TOPSHAM TOWN, ran amok at home to WILLAND ROVERS winning 10-1 with Danny Lewis scoring four and Ben Ede three. The others were from Matt Kingdon, Charlie Selley and an own goal.

HATHERLEIGH TOWN went one better winning 11-0 against BUDLEIGH SALTERTON, who will be glad their season is now finally over.

Goals for Hatherleigh came from Greg Mitchell, (2), Mark Lake, (2), Dean Rice, (2), Darren Moore, Jack Tyson-Muir, John O'Donoghue, Jake Rowe and Ryan Davies.

Leaders TIVERTON TOWN were given a big test by HEAVITREE UNITED before edging in 2-1, Dave O'Connor and Richard Groom scoring.

SIDBURY UNITED hopes were ended by a 1-0 defeat at CHARD TOWN, while ELMORE who also won 1-0 against TOPSHAM still have eyes on a top six slot. Callum Old was their matchwinner.

SEATON TOWN moved away from the danger zone with a surprise 4-1 win at THORVERTON.

Division Two leaders HONITON TOWN left it late to overtake WESTEXE ROVERS 2-1. A Lewis Couch penalty and Dan Broom strike won it both coming in the last 15 minutes.

EXWICK VILLA have not yet given up the chase after beating WITHERIDGE 5-2, Tom Williams had both Withy goals, but NEWTON ST CYRES slipped again held 1-1 by EXMOUTH AMATEURS.

UPOTTERY strengthened their ambition of winning Division Two but only just, a 2-1 win at CHULMLEIGH taking them six points clear.

SIDMOUTH TOWN are making a big charge their 5-0 win at home to CULM UTD means they are on the brink of promotion.

Division Three champions HENRY'S CRONIES won 5-0 at EXMOUTH AMATEURS in their penultimate match. Ryan Burrows, Niall Martin, Sam Chorley, Sam Buckingham and Matt Webb scoring.

LYME REGIS are within a point of finishing as runners up in their first ever season as a senior team. The Seasiders won 2-0 at TEDBURN ST MARY courtesy of second-half goals from Ben Whittington and Mark Bailey.

CHERITON FITZPAINE beat AXMINSTER TOWN 7-2 to send the Tigers down. Dean Pidgeon hit a hat-trick for the Cherries.

LAPFORD are nearly there as Division Four champions after a 6-1 win against AWLISCOMBE UNITED. Ashley Simpson netted them a double.

FLUXTON will take over as Division Five leaders as opponents WINKLEIGH failed to turn up, and will win the title if they also win their last match.

HONITON TOWN are keeping them under pressure thanks to a 6-2 victory at PRIORY, and SAMPFORD PEVERELL are also making a late bid for third place after winning 2-1 at ILMINSTER TOWN.

Division Six leaders KENTISBEARE were left fuming after losing to a strong BEER ALBION side 2-1, which has let OTTERY ST MARY back in after they powered to a 5-0 win at LANGDON. Jordan Rodgers scored twice for the Otters.

THE biggest scoreline of the day came at WINCHESTER in Division Seven where they annihilated bottom club AMORY GREEN OVERS 18-0. Niall Powell hit four and there were hat-tricks from Declan Vowden and Wayne King.

CULM UNITED were 3-0 winners at COLYTON to stay top of Division 8 and go three points clear of second place WELLINGTON who were without a match.

CHARDSTOCK with Gordon Bodily

MERRIOTT with Anne Weeks

SHORT Mat Bowls is a very popular variety of the game which is played outdoors or in special purpose-built indoor facilities.

It has been adapted for use in village halls and therefore has a mat of between 39ft and 45ft length maximum, and most halls can accommodate at least two mats so that two games can be played side by side.

The skill for the shortened game comes by having to negotiate the bowls around a block of wood (15 x 2 x 2 ins) in the centre of the carpet.

It is an ideal sport for those unable to play outside on the greens, but more especially it can be played all the year round.

In Merriott, two sessions are held each week: Tuesday afternoons from 1.45 to 5pm, and Wednesday evenings from 6.45 to 10pm.

The Tuesday sessions give people an excellent chance to have a go with club members on hand to give guidance.

The Club has some bowls available for use although ultimately it is preferable to have your own set. The main essential is to have a pair of smooth soled shoes with no treads so that the mat is protected from damage. Short mat bowls is a friendly game perfectly suited to village community life, giving people a chance to enjoy a sport, which can become very addictive, but which mainly encourages people to step outside from their armchairs and make friends.

Wednesday evenings are also the time when friendly home matches against other clubs in the area are played. Opportunities are also available to participate in leagues in the Yeovil and Chard.

Classic win for battling Chard

CHARD 35 OLD PATESIANS 34
National League Three (south west)
by Glyn Hughes

THIS was one of the most exciting games seen at Chard for some time and the win was a fitting reward for the Chard players who have had a very difficult season but have never given up.

Chard have often played a lot better than their lowly league position would suggest and this gritty performance deservedly gave them their first home league win of the season in this their final game, for the moment at least, in the National league

Chard took an early lead when Mike Lawton converted a penalty from out wide but within a short time the visiting three quarters exploited gaps in the Chard defensive line and centre James Aherne burst through for Patesians' opening try which went unconverted.

Lock forward George Angel got a second unconverted try for the visitors but Chard hit back strongly and Ben Stead finished off a good move to score a fine try and with Lawton kicking the extras Chard were back on level terms.

Once again the Chard forwards were giving a good account of themselves and Patesians were really struggling up front, but not for the first time this season Chard were caught cold with a sucker punch.

When it looked odds-on that Chard would score they lost possession close to the visitors' line and Aherne ran the length of the field to score a third try for his team. But visiting full back George Hughes was really finding the wind difficult and missed a third conversion attempt in a row.

As the game reached the half hour mark Chard got their second try when Harrison went over and Lawton made no mistake with his kick to put Chard 17-15 in front. Lawton put Chard further ahead with another successful penalty early in the second half.

However, they were caught cold immediately from the restart and number eight forward John Barker went through for their bonus point try.

Hughes at last got a kick over and Patesians were now up by two points. Chard then went through a very difficult time and conceded two more tries with one of them coming when Chard again missed a kick to touch and had no answer to the resulting quick counter attack.

With both tries being converted Chard were now trailing 20-34 and looked down and out.

But they were lifted by the crowd and driven on by skipper Mark Parsons and their efforts were rewarded with very late tries from Jason Wright and Simon Jenkins and had the conversions been kicked the scores would have been level but in the difficult windy conditions, and from far out, they were missed.

The was deep into injury time when Chard, who now had all the momentum, threw the ball out wide and Henley got the score which put Chard ahead by one point. The missed conversion mattered not as the final whistle sounded.

Honiton youngsters hit fine late season form

by Jon Hannay

HONITON Tigers U8s ended the regular season on a high winning three out of the four games against South Molton at Northcote Lane on Sunday.

The visitors arrived with nine players so Honiton loaned them Jake Giles, Tyler Patch and Harvey Hannay to enable two games of six-a-side.

The team of CJ Nequest, Tom Phillips, Harry Madge, Finley Offer-Hoar, Finley Backhouse, Sam Gray and Jake Carter claimed a 12-11 win in their opening game. Backhouse claimed a double hat-trick while Offer-Hoar (3), Carter, Nequest and Phillips made up the tally in an end to end game.

Backhouse was among the tries in the second game, notching four times in a 11-10 success. Nequest (2), Phillips (2), Offer-Hoar, Madge and Carter completed the scoring.

Giles helped himself to two tries to help South Molton record a 11-8 win in their game against the group consisting of Josias Drew, Charlie Pickering, Dylan Burrough, Alfie Terry, Ewan Powers-Maguire and Henry Devin. Despite their best efforts, tries from Powers-Maguire (3), Drew (2), Burrough (2) and Terry were in vain.

The Tigers roared back in the second game as they claimed a 9-7 victory in the second game. Devin and Drew both scored a hat-trick while Powers-Maguire (2) and Burrough made up the tally. Patch (3) and Hannay dotted down for the visitors.

Fourth at Imps gala

FOR the first time, Chard juniors had the opportunity to take part in a friendly 'Imps' gala against some other local clubs in March.

Swimmers aged 9-12, many of whom had not competed in galas outside of the club, spent an enjoyable evening at Exmouth leisure centre, competing against other clubs including Exmouth, Torquay, Exeter, Kingsbridge and Sidmouth.

The gala covered a combination of individual and team events, and the atmosphere was great with tremendous team support, helping Chard to achieve an overall 4th position.

Coach June was really proud of their performance, and hopes it has not only given more of the younger swimmers a chance to represent their club, but also a friendly taste of competitive swimming which will spur them on to achieving more.

Congratulations and well done to all those taking part: Simon Davis, Ben Webb, Will Hawkins, Oli Bright, Louis Whittome, Jevan Hampton Rumbold, Jimmy Brett, Oliver Collins, Joe Swan, Lyndon Smith, Sam Platten, Joe Shrubbs, Louis Rood, Jack Morgan, Jamie Porter.

Megan Herbert, Posy Doble, Phoebe Clark, Mia Huntley, Flo McConnell, Jess Fowler, Holly Bigger, Helen Underwood, Charlotte Young, Freya Rex, Abbie Herbert, Emilia Smith, Leonie Housham, Maddie Veevers.

Nine other swimmers from the club recently competed at the Bournemouth Open Meet chasing best times for regional qualification.

Fifteen year old Lewis Pearson gained three regional qualification times in 100 and 200m freestyle and 50m butterfly, and had a successful weekend, taking a total of five medals: gold in 100m freestyle and 200m backstroke, silver in 200m freestyle and 50m breaststroke and bronze in 50m butterfly. Melissa Hanson, 17 also won a bronze in 200m freestyle.

Other swimmers taking part were: Grace Lambert 9, Millie Downes 11, Harriet Copeman 11, Imogen Waterhouse 12, Oliver Bright 12, Paul Harrison 16, Mollie Simpson 16.

◆ SWIMMERS OF THE MONTH: Abi Greenslade (11), Jimmy Brett (11) and Leo Kindred (14, shared boys award winners) who all achieved their first ever regional qualifying times.

netball honiton league

THE Honiton Summer Netball League has seen an increase in the number of teams to 16.

This season the handicap league will be played in two pools, the teams having been allocated randomly by computer to the two sections. Each team has been allocated a goal score that is shown in brackets next to the team name in the results table.

The final week will see the top two teams in each pool play off for the summer title.

Newcomers Swagger Mamas got off to a good start when they came up against Tip Top Trees. With Karen Bennett playing well they were leading into the final quarter by 48-43, but 3Ts didn't give up and with Jenny Robinson in fine form they came on strong to win by 55-52.

Signs South West started their game with a four goal deficit to make up but a determined Otter Valley held them off in a close contest to win by those 4 goals at 47-43. Faye Hawkins took the plaudits for SSW while Charlotte Broom was the Otter Valley star.

Otters were up against new side Beer Blazers in what proved to be a friendly, and very close, encounter with Otters just creeping in at the death to win by a single goal at 47-46 thanks to good work from Bryony Monaghan and despite fine play from Becky Dormor for the Blazers.

Uplowman, who are defending their summer title got off to a strong winning start when they came up against the Sidmouth Toucans Old Birds side. Despite starting 12 goals adrift they soon overcame the deficit to record a 53-28 win and take an early position at the top of pool A. Viv Grant turned in a fine display for Uplowman whilst Emily Heighway took the plaudits for Toucans.
